Attorney General Jones Replies

DENVER, July 19.—Attorney General Jones to-day directed the following letter to Governor Cooper in reply to a letter from his excellency of the 16th inquiring as to his duty in the matter of the charges made against several state officials:

DENVER, Colo., July 18, 1889.

SIR: Under date of the 16th inst. this office had the honor to receive from you an official communication requesting information as to your rights and duties, and the rights and duties of the attorney general in the matter of charges made by the public press regarding certain labor and supplies furnished the various departments of the state. I understand your communication to mean that you desire to be advised as to your whole duty in the premises, for nothing short of a full and fair investigation of each and every person implicated by the public suspicions would accord with the high expressions of your desire to discharge your whole duty.

Your excellency is fully aware that no prosecution or action can be based on public suspicion and general accusations. The law requires something definite and explicit, though such general accusations are sufficient to warrant careful investigation on your part. It is not necessary to remind you that no public moneys can be expended or obligations incurred except in pursuance of an express authority, and by the official records and files each public functionary should furnish the evidence on which their actions stand. Whether the laws have been complied with is a matter of easy ascertainment. To the general duty imposed upon you to "take care that the laws be faithfully executed" is added the specific power to "require information in writing from the officers of the executive department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, which information shall be given upon oath whenever so required." (Cons. art. IV, sec. 8) and conversely, it is your duty to require such information whenever the circumstances seem to you to demand such a requisition.

Following Article 5, section 29 of the constitution, there are certain sections of the general statutes, beginning with section 1,338, which plainly lay down the specific mode by which the supplies for the state should be obtained. Though the sections from the general statutes above referred to do not specifically provide that a contract shall be in writing, yet the whole context, as well as the law found at page 49 of the acts of 1885 plainly shows that such contracts should be in writing. I may say, however, that the mere circumstance that all such contracts are not found in writing will not necessarily imply either guilt on the part of any officer or impair the right of the contractor to recover the reasonable value of goods or labor received by the state.

Section 1378 makes it the duty of the auditor to receive all the documents necessary to a full ascertainment of the facts regarding these accusations, and section 1385 fully empowers you to have free access to the offices and documents in the custody of the treasurer and auditor. Hence you have full access to such evidences as will make the truth appear, and it is as important to the public confidence that the innocent should be freed from the imputation of guilt or official negligence as that the guilty should be punished.

The duties of the attorney general are not very accurately defined, but section 1344 is ample authority for me to proceed with such prosecutions or actions as your excellency may direct to be taken. Having full power and authority to lay before me and before the public a full and explicit statement of the truth surrounding these matters, your own judgment will prompt you to make such investigations as you may deem advisable, and you may extend your researches into every avenue likely to afford aid to a correct conclusion. Should you desire me to institute legal proceedings, I cannot advise what form such proceedings should assume until you have placed before me the facts upon which I must proceed, but when your excellency has enabled me to know these facts I shall not hesitate to take such action as is warranted. In this matter, as in every other where my official duties lay, I shall lend every assistance in my power and upon your report to me of the facts and your requirement to proceed, I will endeavor to redeem my obligation to faithfully discharge the duties of the office to which the people have elected me. I have the honor to subscribe myself, Your most obedient servant,

SAM'L W. JONES, Att'y Gen'l

To His Excellency Job A. Cooper, Governor.

It is the first acquittal in the famous boodle cases.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The secretary of the treasury has written to the collector of customs at Port Townsend, W. T., calling attention to complaints of excessive delay in passing and the inspection of teas at that port, and urging him to be less dilatory in the future. An Attack on Salisbury.

LONDON, July 19.—The trial of the action of Wm. O'Brien against Lord Salisbury for slander, began to-day. O'Brien testified that he never incited to murder or robbery either upon the platform or in his paper United Ireland. He never advocated crime. Counsel for Lord Salisbury subjected O'Brien to a searching cross examination. They aimed to show that the witness' editorial articles and speeches justified the language used by Salisbury.

Northern Pacific Affairs.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Northern Pacific railroad directors yesterday referred to the financial committee a financial plan for the future management of that property. This plan is Villard's idea as to the dividend policy and as to the Northern Pacific's future relations with Manitoba and other northwestern companies. The friends of the company said yesterday that the dividends on Northern Pacific preferred stock had been announced officially and it is predicted that the various entanglements of the company will be wholly straightened out right away and the rival and allied companies will be kept in lasting harmony.

Italian Navy Question.

LONDON, July 19.—In the commons to-day Labouchere asked what truth there was in the statement, semi-officially published in L'Opinione of Rome that there was a definite intent that the English and Italian navies should act together in event of a war with France, and also that a year ago when a French attack on Spezzia was feared the British Mediterranean squadron was held in readiness to help Italy. Ferguson, secretary of the foreign office, in reply stated that the action of the government in case of war between France and Italy would be guided by circumstances. England was under no engagement endangering her liberty. The further questions by Labouchere Sir James declined to answer.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The stock market was extremely dull again to-day and at times presented no character whatever, but in general it was weak and the day's operations resulted in lower prices over the entire list.

A TERRIBLE FLOOD.

The Kanawaha Valley Visited by a Disastrous Flood.

Lives Lost, Crops Ruined and Property Carried Away.

Residences Hurled to Pieces by the Raging Waters.

A Cloud Bursts and the Rain Falls in Torrents.

The Kanawaha Valley Flood.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 19.—The greatest disaster which ever befell the little Kanawaha valley came last night in the shape of a terrible cloud burst which has completely flooded the country, destroying many lives, carrying off thousands of dollars in property and ruining crops for miles.

The deluge fell here about dusk and continued to fall in torrents during the night. The worst of the storm was on the lower side of the Kanawaha, filling the small streams from bank to bank and causing the worst flood within the recollection of the oldest inhabitants. In three hours the Kanawaha raised six feet and ran out with such velocity that it carried everything before it. At this point thousands of logs and a number of boats went out or were sunk. Mrs. Isaac H. Turker, Martin Lawess and an unknown man were drowned.

Above, the destruction was still greater. Big Tygart valley is completely ruined. A big mill near its mouth went out and took the Tygart bridge with it. In the valley all the growing crops and much stock were lost. At Chesterville, a small town about ten miles above, half the residences were carried off bodily and left in a corn field. In the Clay district a fine church and three dwellings were wrecked. Several steamers on the river were wrecked.

The worst story of all comes from Morristown, a small village at the head of Tucker creek, where the flood broke in all its fury, coming down on the village about midnight and totally destroying it together with many of its people. The first reports gave the loss at eleven, but later ones fixes the loss at a larger number. Houses are said to have been picked up and hurled against each other in such short space of time that no chance for escape was given. Among the lost at Morristown are Jake Talger, his brothers [illegible] and Thomas, a man named Bailey Orville and his wife and child. The body of a man believed to be another Morristown victim was found on the Richardson farm.

This morning at Hill all the bridges and culverts were washed away and it is impossible to reach or communicate with that point or any other on the upper waters. It is impossible to enumerate the loss as the river is still rising, and tearing everything loose. A family numbering three or four persons went out during the night and it is believed all are lost. A freight train on the Ohio River railroad broke through a trestle at Harris Ferry, completely wrecking the train and fatally injuring Wm. Neptune. The wreck was caused by a heavy washout.

Too Much Water.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—A heavy thunder storm at 3 o'clock this morning flooded a portion of the city. The Ohio canal broke at York street and a number of persons were rescued with difficulty. The storm was general in the state. The lightning set fire to the little village of Ocongaville, Franklin county, and half the town was burned.

Jack the Ripper Caught.

LONDON, July 19.—An Englishman was arrested this morning charged with having murdered the woman whose body was found Tuesday morning in Whitechapel. The prisoner confessed and said that the weapon used was an ordinary pocket knife. He declared that he had just arrived from abroad. His actions indicate that he is insane.

The man's identity is carefully concealed for the present by the authorities. He confessed that he murdered all the women whose bodies have been found in and around the Whitechapel district and gave the names of his victims, the dates upon which he killed them and all the ghastly and indecent details connected with the terrible crimes. The police believe that he is a lunatic but think that possibly the story he tells is true and that he is the man for whom they have so long been searching.

Warner Interviewed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 19.—Commander-in-Chief Warner of the G. A. R. was in this city to-day. When asked what he thought the attendance at the coming Milwaukee encampment would be, he said: "If the one cent rate had been carried into effect I think fully 100,000 veterans would be in attendance which otherwise meant 200,000 people. Yet I think there will still be a good attendance. What pension measures will be advocated by the encampment? I think the dependent pension bill will be reindorsed and I think old soldiers are all in favor of a service pension bill." The commander also thinks some action will be taken at Milwaukee looking to the recognition of the Sons of Veterans in such a way that they may be brought into closer relation with the G. A. R. The time is rapidly coming when the Grand Army will expire by the statue of limitation.

Virginia Muddle Settled.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—A sub committee of five from the republican national executive committee, consisting of Chairman Quay, Vice Chairman Clarkson, Treasurer Dudley, Mr. Fessenden of Connecticut, and Mr. Hobarth, of New Jersey, have been in conference here for three days with a view to harmonizing the troubles in the republican party in Virginia. Delegations from both parties have been heard. Brady and Grover, of the anti-Mahone element, first submitted to abide by the decision of the national committee, and the Mahone side showed a similar desire to reach unity.

To-day a conclusion was reached by the national committee approving a call for a state convention to be called by Mahone as chairman of the regular committee, and Brady on behalf of the other side concurred in this action. The call was so broad and so to [illegible] to delegates asked by the anti-Mahone [illegible]. It makes the first duty of the [illegible] convention, after assembling, and [illegible] the call to have read a list of the delegates certified to by the county [illegible] tions. The state committee will [illegible] lowering delegates shall be [illegible] seats on the floor of the convention.

In conversation with an Associated Press representative to-night, Chairman Quay and Vice Chairman Clarkson said: "We found both elements sincerely [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] The work of three days has been harmonious and nothing unpleasant has occurred. We believe it is an honest and [illegible] cent reconciliation which promises honor and independence of all republicans in Virginia and which once [illegible] we believe will thoroughly unite the party.

Heavy Hail and Rain Storm.

ST. PAUL, July 19.—Reports from many and widely separated points in Montana and Dakota report severe storms of hail and rain yesterday. The weather has been excessively hot. In places and crops have been burned up by the heat. In other places the crops are damaged by water. The streams are rising and serious overflows are feared.

Proposition of Solomon's Offer.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Star tonight, referring to a communication which it was said President Solomon of Hayti made to this government shortly before his death offering the United States the absolute right to the harbor of Mole San Nicholas that we might establish a coaling station, says that proposition was still unacted upon when Mr. Blaine went into the state department and it is believed to have formed an incentive for his proposition to send a commission to Hayti with a view to ascertaining whether or not Legitime was disposed to give us the concessions. Solomon's reason, it is said, was to effect a close alliance with the United States in the hope of insuring a stable government in Hayti.

BASE BALL.

An Audience Intensely Delighted with Yesterday's Game

An unusually small and enthusiastic attended the ball game yesterday afternoon, owing, no doubt, to the threatening appearance of the weather. Though small in number, a more enthusiastic crowd is seldom seen on this ground, and they had good cause to feel enthusiastic for the playing on both sides was unusually fine and the result was one of the most interesting and finest played games ever seen here. The clubs were about evenly matched and it required ten innings to decide the score in the Springs favor.

Until the sixth inning the home team was unable to score a run, while the Leadville team had two. In their favor. In that inning the score was tied and one extra run made amid thunders of applause. In the seventh inning the score was again tied by the visitors.

By this time the audience was wild with enthusiasm and greeted each player as he stepped to the bat with cheers and applause. But the next three innings were played without a score on either side, though there were some wonderful exhibitions of fine ball playing. In the eighth inning, Fitzgerald, the Leadville pitcher, made a spurt and put in some fine head work. His first four balls pitched resulted in two men being put out and the third man making two strikes. In the same inning Breckenridge made his second two base hit of the game. Unfortunately he was left on a base.

The battery work on both sides was brilliant. Hendricks and Wilson, of the home team, were frequently applauded for their good playing. Hendricks struck out four men and sent two to first on balls. Fitzgerald, on the opposite side, struck out two and sent four men to first on balls.

The batting on each side was about even, although the hits on the home side were the more effective. Breckenridge was the heavy hitter for the Springs. He was at bat five times and scored two doubles and two single hits. Glenalvin and McMahon each had two singles.

When the tenth inning opened the Leadville club heard something drop. At the same time there was a slight and unusual noise from the grand stand. The inning opened with Lytle at the bat. He scored a base hit and a run as did also Glenalvin, Newman and Breckenridge. McMahon also scored a hit but was put out at the home plate. The visitors were not allowed to score and the game ended.

The four players who scored in the last inning were presented with a purse by the audience who appreciated their work in scoring another victory for the club which bears the name of our beautiful city.

Umpire Walsh received a terrible blow on the cheek from a foul ball early in the game. The blow was sufficiently powerful to open the skin and cause an ugly wound. His umpiring throughout the game was probably an improvement on the day before, but still the audience strongly objected to several of his decisions.

It was unfortunate that a quicker crowd did not witness yesterday's game for it would have been a treat for any person who takes the slightest interest in this fascinating game. As is usual the attendance of ladies was quite fair. Following is the official score:

THE STREETS IN PARRISH'S ADDITION

Are 100 to 140 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition

There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 16-inch main; the Largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

YOU ARE SURE TO GET WATER

(Both from Pipes and Ditch) in PARRISH'S ADDITION if there is any water in the Fountain, even if other parts of the city are suffering from scarcity of the precious fluid.

REMEMBER THE FOREGOING, and then, when I tell you I will sell you a First-Class

LOT IN PARRISH'S ADDITION FOR $350

To $1,000, a full size lot 50 by 190 feet, do not hesitate a moment about buying. You can buy two lots on a corner, and erect pretty little cottages ACROSS THEM, giving each cottage a neat, pretty little yard, and readily rent them, owing to the location, etc.,

To Pay You 25 to 35 Per Cent Per Annum on the Entire Investment.

WHERE CAN YOU DO THIS ELSEWHERE?

THE STREET CAR LINE RUNS THROUGH PARRISH'S ADDITION, from East to West, and will doubtless soon be extended to the North, past the "Mesa Road," up to THE ROCK ISLAND SHOPS. Lots are sold on Terms to Suit Buyers, if possible.

I AM ALSO SELLING

DURING THE COMING YEAR.

CALVERT HEIGHTS!

Is surrounded by growing and progressive enterprises. THE MIDLAND SHOPS lie at its Northeast corner. Colorado City proper is North and Northeast of it. Bott's Additions join it on the North and Northwest. Colorado Springs itself is in full view, only two miles to the Southeast, and last though not least important,

The Great Glass Manufacturing Works

Are erected and in operation just south of CALVERT HEIGHTS. I have arranged to have every lot supplied with PURE WATER IN PIPES.

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB!

THE SURROUNDING VIEWS

ARE MAGNIFICENT!

Last year I recommended you to buy lots in Parrish's Addition, and they have paid a better Profit than any other lots on the market. This year I urge you to add to YOUR INVESTMENT AS MANY LOTS IN CALVERT HEIGHTS as you can afford to buy, with the result that, before the year is out, you will again be glad that you have taken my advice.

There are not very many lots altogether, and those who apply late, may find them all gone, and will have to Pay an Advance.

General Mahone advises Virginia republicans to organize for the general good. This is very good advice but it is probable that far down in his own mind the distinguished gentleman who gives it thinks that the "general good" and General Mahone are one and the same.

There is some talk of putting a new fence around our parks, we are glad to say. But in making this improvement it should be kept in mind that it cannot add to the beauties of the park, but it may mar them. The fence that will keep the cattle out of the park and is least consp[icuous] will be the best

Attorney General Jones yesterday sent to Governor Cooper a reply to the latter's inquiry as to what steps he might take in investigating the alleged fr[aud] on the state tre[asur]y. We publish that letter in full this morning. It would seem to remove all doubt as to the governor's duty in the matter. Governor Cooper has the confidence of the people of the state in his [earnest] desire to do all that legally lies in his power to bring the guilty to justice and to free the in[nocent] fr[om] suspicion.

There have been some very serious charges [made] against Gover[nor] Beaver and his [associ]ates who have charge of the expenditure of the Johnstown relief fund. Some newspapers have simply charged the [comm]ission with careless[ness] in handling the funds while others go further and make the very grave charge that the f[un]ds have been used to advance the private political ends of the [mem]bers of the commission. It is not [illegible] that in the midst of the first ex[illegible] which f[ollow]ed the [illegible] of Black Friday that the [money] which [poured] into Johnstown from all over the world was not [handl]ed as [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. But it is not to be believed that Governor Beaver and the other prominent gentlemen who comp[ose] the commission would descend so low as to wilfully either misspend or [mi]sappro[pri]ate [the money] placed in their [hand]s for such a purpose as was the Johnstown fund. However, the [comm]ission [seems] to have [made a mist]ake in not having given their proceedings sufficient publicity. The contributions for the sufferers were sent in generously and promptly when the needs of the case [became] known and those who sent them wanted to know and had the right to know how [the]y were [expended]. The gentlemen of the commission do not [seem] to have appreciated this fact and hence their proceedings have not been given the publicity the occ[asion] d[emande]d. It is to be hoped that the mistake in this direction will be corrected and the opportunity for the idle talk of misappropriation thus [remov]ed.

Yesterday morning the board of di[recto]rs of the B[ase] Ball association de[cided] to d[isban]d and to give up playing the ball team for the bal[ance] of the season. The Colorado Springs team in the race for the state pennant now [illegible] [illegible] d, with Pueblo only a few [poin]ts ahead. It is an excellent team, and, although accident after accident [prev]ented its [getting] a good position in the early part of the season, it has lately [struck] a [illegible] gait and has developed into a very strong club. After having [lost] the greater part of the season [an]d it is doing so exceedingly well at present—it would surely be a sad misfortune to have its career nipped just as the pennant [came] into sight. It would also be an unfortunate occurrence for enterprising Colorado Springs to have to acknowledge failure to sustain its representative among [those] of other cities of the state in our great national sport, which, by the way, is about the only athletic [game] which is free from hippodroming and is on the square. We understand that the old management is willing to turn over the team, with suits and other impedimenta, to Messrs Lent and Goddard, who, if properly supported by [subscr]iptions, will attempt to keep the team in the field and have it win the champ[ions]hip of the state league. These young men are well known as the original projectors of last year's team, which did such admirable work amongst its state competitors, and they deserve to meet with hearty support in their endeavor to keep up the Colorado Springs club. A subscription paper was started y[ester]day, which, up to date, is published elsewhere, and it surely shows that those who have already been seen have taken very kindly to the new managers. The [necess]ary sum must be subscribed by to night, and it is hoped that the required amount will be raised in time to save the team.

A Plea [illegible]

Colorado [Springs], July [illegible]

To the [Editor] of the Gazette

DEAR SIR —I cannot see that the water question is such an elephant providing our city officials give the new additions a rest for a few months and make a point of attending to supplying the city with water. Let the new additions come in when a water supply is secured for a [population] of not less than 50,000 people. Here is our position in a nut shell). We [have] certain rights to Ruxton creek which we will get, and even after we get what we are entitled to there will be an abundance of water in that creek. Now we have Bear creek that has never been tapped for water privilege, but will be unless this city attends to it at once. The water is equally as good as in Ruxton creek, and it is a mistake when parties say that Bear creek has been dry. It has not been dry for the last eleven years to my knowledge. Within one and one half miles there is the little Brookside system of water works situated in the North Cheyenne canon that this city owns. It has a pressure of 180 pounds and the point where the water is taken out is 75 feet higher than the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and we can form our own opinion of the supply [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] larger supply and better [illegible] can be gotten than from the Ruxton creek.

Now, [illegible] [illegible] at the 10 inch main [illegible] [illegible] we can take up all of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] three [illegible] [illegible] which we can utilize [illegible] Bear or Chey[enne] creeks. The distance from the 10 inch main to Bear creek is about two and one half miles and from the main to Brookside water works one and one half. This will leave only one half mile of pipe to be purchased. I believe that by the expenditure of only $70,000 our laboring population can be supplied with work for a long time to come and a supply of water sufficient for a city of 75,000 people can be secured.

Yours respectfully
WILLIAM SCOTT

"The Water Supply"

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., July 19, 1889

To the Editor of the Gazette

I do not impute improper or selfish motives to Mr. DeCoursey in his effort to secure a natatorium. As intimated in my previous letter, the effort is commendable, and should be encouraged as soon as practicable. But when, in public print, the city council is arraigned for laying the request for a natatorium on the table, and it is claimed that it is the custom of the council to lay matters on the table as "a convenient way of getting rid of present trouble," it is well that the people should know, first, that only two motions to lay on the table have been made during the [present] aldermanic year, and that last Monday evening, and, second, that the very next morning after the proceedings were published, the council was severely censured by one who had a personal interest in the request laid on the table. We do not object to the "personal interest," but we do say that the ungenerous charges against the council in regard to the water supply were so closely allied with the action of the previous evening, that it was an unfortunate discussion of an important question at an unfortunate time and in an unfortunate way. If the motive that prompted the letter (not the request) was altogether philanthropic, then its [lan]guage failed to convey its import. Had it been read in a secret [sessi]on of the council, where something might have been done to supply our need, it would have helped our city far more than did its publication to the wide world, which is, after reading it, made suspicious of our future prospects, and thus hindered from making investments in our midst.

There is no disposition on the part of the writer to trifle with the water question as it relates to our city, although the serious part of my previous letter was entirely ignored in the reply given; nor do I propose an answer to the personal attack of Mr DeCoursey in this morning's GAZETTE. I wish him the greatest kindness, and appreciate all his efforts in behalf of our city. But I may be pardoned in offering a few suggestions as to the way out of our [present] difficulty and these may be considered or rejected as their merit or demerit may appear.

Our city engineer, Mr H. I. Reed, has closely examined the country surrounding this city for many miles and is perfectly familiar with the mountain streams and lakes to which our city is accessible. Among these he finds Lake Moraine, nearly six miles from Manitou, which, I am informed, covers a surface of about ten acres and has considerable depth. Adjoining it and separated therefrom is a natural reservoir that can be made available and that, when completed and filled would have a surface, if necessary, of one fourth of a mile in width and a mile in length. In this an immense quantity of water may be stored to be used in a dry season, and this without any discomfort or damage to Manitou forasmuch as the dam can be constructed so that nothing but an earthquake would disturb its security. By filling this when water is plenty we may be fully protected in times of drouth, and it may easily be filled in part if not entire, by a pipe connecting Lake Moraine therewith. Through this natural reservoir Ruxton creek flows, and from it, with a pipe line only seventy feet in length, it is said that Lake Moraine may be lowered a distance of ten feet. Then, from this reservoir along Ruxton creek may be appropriated whatever water is needed to feed our 10 inch pipe when it shall finally reach the settler, in times when otherwise there would be a scarcity of supply. I am informed by our city engineer, who considers this scheme perfectly practical, that 60,000 inhabitants can be supplied with water, in a dry time from this source and Ruxton creek. It may cost $30,000 to accomplish this but once completed we are at rest for many years to come.

But it is said the government has not yet granted [illegible] [illegible] and lake. Yet it is true that many of our government officials have expressed a willingness to do, having already [illegible] on the subject, and, if necessary, [illegible] can be sent to congress [at] the approaching session, who will secure a title to Lake Moraine and the [illegible] [illegible] there in [illegible].

At present Lake Moraine could be tapped, and we could have more water (to which the government would not object) [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

In my former letter I said the council was trying to connect a 16 inch [main] (instead of the 8), with the 10 inch thus increasing largely our supply and I asked Mr. DeCoursey to suggest something better at [present] than what we are doing. And his reply is "I can see nothing to answer in Mr. Sprague's letter." when, in reality, the trouble was not that there was nothing to answer, but that, inadvertently, a place was touched where blood, instead of water was made to boil. I am sorry that the grave part of my previous letter was ignored: for, with others I feel seriously upon this subject and would like to find in a reply to facts something besides such words as "nonsense," "frivolous," "quip," "smart jest," "flippant retort," etc. If one can discover in the last letter of Mr. DeCoursey any honest earnest grappling with the water question or scarce anything save personalities, [and] allusions, then I will ask forgiveness for confessing that I have read it repeatedly, and in vain, to find some allusion to say nothing of information, on this subject, that would better prepare me to "comprehend the gravity of our present situation."

This is probably my last letter since the discussion, if continued, is likely to produce more fire than water. But while the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] away on account of scarcity of water for we have at present plenty to drink, a moderate quantity for sprinkling and water [for] all our irrigating ditches if necessary, while the Lord is doing more for us in the way of beautiful rainfall than can possibly be accomplished by [illegible] the council or [illegible] outside of regular [illegible]. May the natatorium soon be filled with water. I am willing for one, if the people are to divide with the [illegible] and we never will be materially injured by the extra appropriation) and let people swim who enjoy this luxury.

MANITOU SPRINGS

Personal and News Notes from the Saratoga of the West

Mr Ed Youngblood is very dangerously ill.

The Mansions and Manitou [illegible] their weekly hop tonight.

The estate of the late Capt. M [illegible] has been [illegible]

The hop at the Barker last evening was well attended and well enjoyed by all.

The Barker [illegible] was [illegible] last evening by guests from the various hotels.

Mr Horace W[illegible] of Chicago, [illegible] organist of wide reputation is among the Manitou arrivals.

Manitou is soon to be visited by a first-class circus. Farini & McMahon's combined circuses exhibit Thursday July 25th.

Mrs H and R Snyder has just arrived from the east. Mr and Mrs Snyder will occupy George Snider's cottage during the summer.

Mr John G Samuel, a wholesale liquor dealer of Chicago, is at the Barker with his wife and daughter. They will remain in Manitou several weeks.

Mr M A Leddy has purchased a third interest in the planing mill and lumber business of Gillis Bros & Walsh, Colorado Springs. Mr Leddy will still remain in business in Manitou.

Dr W S Gee of Chicago, who made a trip to Manitou last summer, was so well pleased that he has now arrived with the intention of spending the season.

The Manitou registered Mr. S K. Hooper, general ticket agent D & R G, last evening. He is down from Denver to spend Sunday with his wife and daughter who are in Manitou for the summer.

The team attached to one of the Manitou transfer wagons became frightened at an incoming train last evening and ran up Manitou avenue. It was fortunately stopped before doing any considerable damage.

The Cliff is entertaining the Right Rev. Robert Scannel, bishop of the Concordia (Kansas) diocese, accompanied by the Rev. J[illegible] Perrier, archdeacon of the same diocese. These gentlemen are here to assist in the dedication of St. Joseph's chapel.

Mr H T Blake, who was a war comrade of Mr. A B Carrington, and has often rallied under his roll-call, has extended an invitation to Madam Carrington and himself to visit at the Iron Springs. On account of immediate eastern engagements they cannot accept.

The Barker entertained Mr. A. J. Carrington, the famous "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," and his wife Madam Carrington, the renowned prima donna, who sang last evening at the M E church of Colorado Springs to an appreciative audience, many of whom were over from Manitou.

Indians Killed by Lightning

BISMARCK, Dak., July 19.—A wild and terrorizing scene was witnessed near the Standing Rock agency late yesterday afternoon when a terrific thunder storm was at its height. The lightning was darting hither and thither, striking in numerous sheets near by, and Indians rushed en masse howling and whooping in abject fright to the shelter of their wigwams. At last a blinding flash of lightning accompanied by a deafening clap of thunder came down and actually shook the earth. The lightning struck a wigwam a few rods below the agency in which were huddled five frightened Indians, instantly killing White Horse and Black Eagle and injuring another so he will not recover. The other two were unconscious for hours.

Mit[illegible] to C[illegible]

NEW YORK, July 19.—A sporting extra this evening prints an item to the effect that Charlie Mitchell the English pugilist with Mike Donovan has skipped to Canada rather than risk an arrest in a city where he has few friends among the sporting men who would help him at a pinch. He decided to [illegible] over into Her Majesty's dominion when Mitchell arrived from the west. On Monday he went in company with Frank [illegible] it is said to the law office of Peter Mitchell. The two were soon closeted with the lawyer and in the conversation that followed Mitchell's fears of arrest were fully stated. On Tuesday he kept well under cover awaiting developments. The arrival of Detective Norris with the requisition from Governor Lowry of Mississippi increased Mitchell's fears and another secret visit was paid to the counsel, when it was learned beyond a doubt that Norris was bent upon arresting the trainer of Kilrain and that the New York police were assisting him. Mitchell's fears were undisguised. He saw in prospect a long term of imprisonment in a strange country and decided to leave, which he has done.

"Sound Blindness."

NASHVILLE, July 19.—The Educational association this morning listened to a paper on "Sound Blindness," which was compared to color blindness and declared as prevalent and difficult to cure. Education in the south was also discussed.

Min[illegible] a Execution Law

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., July 19.—Albert Bulow was hanged at 1:45 o'clock this morning in accordance with a new state law which prescribes that executions shall take place between 1 and 6 a. m. The law provides that newspapers shall publish only the bare announcement of the hangings but all the Minneapolis and St Paul papers contain full details of the execution. They probably will be prosecuted. The crime for which Bulow suffered death was the murder on November 23d of Frank Fich in a dispute over wages which Fich owed him.

Sullivan in New York

NEW YORK, July 19.—John L. Sullivan arrived in the Pennsylvania depot at Jersey City by limited express at [illegible] o'clock tonight. There were two friends with him and they got him into a carriage and across the Cortlandt street ferry. Sullivan was intoxicated.

The Circus.

Farini & McMahon's circus will be at Colorado Springs on Friday, July 26th. The above show comes highly endorsed by the press of the Pacific coast cities. Newspapers of San Francisco, Portland and other places all agree in pronouncing the performances of Farini & McMahon much superior to anything ever seen in those cities in the circus line. The San Francisco Chronicle says: "A number of lumber wagons on parade is no evidence of a superior circus. [illegible] wagons [illegible] the past [illegible] and other [illegible] the best [illegible] twelve years."

The Carrington C[illegible]

Madam Abbie Carrington was heard in grand concert last night at the First M E church. The auditorium of the church was very completely filled, but the audience was nothing compared to what it should have been considering the entertainment. It was thoroughly representative, however, of the best musical ability and taste of Colorado Springs.

The programme consisted of eight numbers, three songs by Madam Carrington, two piano solos by Miss Mina Ehrlicher, two flute solos by Major A. R Carrington and a violin solo by Mr M. O Barnes. Miss Ehrlicher's first number was "Valse Impromptu," by A. Lambert, and the second, "Rondo Capriccioso," by Mendelssohn. Mr Barnes played for his number "Reverie," Vieuxtemps, accompanied upon the piano by Miss Ouna Fields. The playing of these local artists is too familiar to Colorado Springs audiences to need criticism. It is only a matter of congratulation that the city possesses them. Major Carrington's flute playing is also familiar, as he appeared here several times last spring. His numbers were well received and greatly pleased the audience.

It was Abbie Carrington, the splendid songstress, that the audience had come to hear, and each appearance was a signal for prolonged applause. For her first number was given "Ernani Involami" by Verdi, and for the second "Nearer my God to Thee," by Holden. The third number was "The Flower Girl" by Bevegnini. After each number Madam Carrington was compelled to respond to an encore, singing some sweet but simple ballad. Madam Carrington's voice is a soprano of a very pure quality, sustaining the highest notes with ease. The projectors of the entertainment have the thanks of all who were present for the splendid treat.

The El Paso Livery company yesterday received a handsome new hack from the manufactory of J. M. Miller & Co, Quincy, Ill. It contains a [illegible] clock, cigar case and [illegible] speaking tube for occupants to communicate with the driver. The vehicle cost about $1500.

Sheriff White of Aspen stopped in the city for a few hours yesterday to see Sheriff Jackson on business. He had with him Miss Ora Chatfield, a young girl of Pitkin county, who some time ago created a sensation by eloping with her cousin, another young woman. The sheriff found them in Kansas somewhere and on account of her youth Miss Chatfield was returned to her parents but the other woman was allowed to remain.

The last game of the Leadville vs. Colorado Springs series will be played this afternoon. The Leadvilles [illegible] to the Springs with the intention of taking four games from the home team, but will now have a hard tussle for one. The Colorado Springs team is looking forward to the pennant and if they continue to do the excellent work of the past three weeks will undoubtedly reach the desired goal. Fitzgerald will pitch for the Springs and Garrety for Leadville. The following is a list of the players and their position:

Colo.		Leadville.
[illegible]	[illegible]	Garrety
Letts	[illegible]	Whyte
[illegible]	First base	Blake
[illegible]	[illegible]	Daley
Vaudry	Third base	B[illegible]
Lynch	Short stop	Goldie

Madame Helena Modjeska supported by the Booth & Barrett company will be the attraction at the opera house this evening. She will appear in the popular play of "Adrienne Le Couvreur." The Leadville Herald in speaking of her says: Modjeska is grand, superb might better describe it. Not only was she seen to brilliant advantage but to truly magnificent effect. Hers is the art of arts and as [illegible] she understands it. That Modjeska is an artist need scarcely be said—that she excels has been demonstrated, not only last evening and in Adrienne, but every time she has appeared and as Rosalind, Viola, Camille or whatever she may undertake for with her an undertaking is a success. It is doubtful if there is in Modjeska's repertoire, a character which requires such power, such energy in its interpreter, as does the one in which she appeared last night. Her work electrified—it thrilled. The death scene was awful in its realism, yet strangely sweet from its pathetic untimeliness. The scene in the third act, a master stroke of master hands, was completed in its grandness by a masterly exponent of one of the greatest characters ever conceived. There is but one Modjeska. There is but one Adrienne
